

March 27, 2010
Turfway Park
Race 10: 38th running of the Fairway Fun Stakes
$50,000 guaranteed
Fillies and Mares, 4yo and up, 1-1/16 miles
Race Quotes

Winning horse: My Baby Baby

Winning jockey: Alex Solis

“She had an incredible trip. She’s a very special horse, so professional. In her last race (the Santa Maria Handicap at Santa Anita against St Trinians and Life Is Sweet), I really thought we were going to get there at the quarter pole, but she was just up against two monsters. She won very easy today.”

Winning trainer: Ken McPeck

“She had been running against some really good mares out in California and we had been thinking about bringing her back home to get a stakes win. We looked for a spot for awhile and this race seemed ideal. We’ll think about going to Keeneland for the Doubledogdare. He (Alex) didn’t want to hit her there at the end because she was running so hard on her own, and I’m glad he didn’t.”

2nd horse: Danzon

2nd jockey: Rex A. Stokes

“She came rolling, but she just couldn’t get there.”