Winning horse: Cool Bullet

Winning jockey: Calvin Borel

“He (Steve Margolis) called me and told me he had him ready to run. He ran like much the best today. It looks like he’s a real sprinter. Those last races might have been a little long for him. It was a very easy trip. I got away from the fence, because it looks like it’s a little deep down there, but he had his ears pricked. He did it all so easy on his own.”

Winning trainer: Steve Margolis

“The Southwest was just a very tough race so we got to talking and we put him back to sprint. He ran a big race. He’s been a good little horse for us. He’ll go back to Churchill now and we’ll come up with a plan for him.”

2nd horse: Strapping Groom

2nd jockey: Alex Solis

“He ran really hard. I had him in the spot I wanted him. We were just second best today. We just couldn’t run that other horse down.”
